

"What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them?" James 2:14

James 2:1-13

- What does this passage teach me about God? How should that change me?
- Believers in Jesus Christ must not show favoritism.
- The Royal Law – Love the Lord your God, Love your neighbor as yourself. (Matthew 22:37-40)
- Are we willing to show mercy to those that may not deserve it?

James 2:14-26

- This passage is highly debated as some believe it contradicts other passages in the Bible. We will discuss these verses and see how they do not contradict other passages in the Bible, but they work in tandem with those passages.
- James is addressing an audience that has clearly diminished the importance of works, and Paul addressed an audience that was clearly diminishing the importance of faith.
- If we do not put feet to our faith, our faith has no use or impact to further the message of Christ.
- Like someone once said, "If you were on trial for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?"

"What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them?" James 2:14

James 2:1-13

- What does this passage teach me about God? How should that change me?
- Believers in Jesus Christ must not show favoritism.
- The Royal Law – Love the Lord your God, Love your neighbor as yourself. (Matthew 22:37-40)
- Are we willing to show mercy to those that may not deserve it?

James 2:14-26

- This passage is highly debated as some believe it contradicts other passages in the Bible. We will discuss these verses and see how they do not contradict other passages in the Bible, but they work in tandem with those passages.
- James is addressing an audience that has clearly diminished the importance of works, and Paul addressed an audience that was clearly diminishing the importance of faith.
- If we do not put feet to our faith, our faith has no use or impact to further the message of Christ.
- Like someone once said, "If you were on trial for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?"
