

"Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom." James 3:13

James 3

- "Leadership imposes responsibility."
- As Christians, we can represent God to an unbelieving world.
 May we not shy away out of fear, but may we rise to the occasion and live out the truth.
- A tongue controls the entire body. It is compared to a bit in a horse's mouth, a rudder on a ship, and a small spark that starts a fire.
- Blessings and curses should not come from the same source.
- The solution for the problem of controlling our tongues is to seek divine wisdom.

James 4

- The root of our problems that James outlines here is clear – we are selfish.
- Bringing our desires before God and asking Him to examine our hearts can help us to determine if we are acting out of selfishness.
- Choosing to live as the world does makes us enemies of God, but when we humble ourselves before Him, He gives us grace.

We can ask God for His help to glorify Him in all we do!

• We are not called to be judges; God is the only Judge.
